

How to share your views for your IDP Review

If you have an Individual Development Plan (IDP) then every year the school, college or Local Authority will hold a review of your support.

The people who should be invited to your Review should include:

- You
- Your parent(s) or guardian(s)
- Your teacher, Head teacher and School staff
- Your Additional Learning Needs Coordinator (ALNCO)
- People from the Local Authority, Health or Social Care
- Any other professionals who work with you

You will be asked to give your views for your Review. You will be able to attend your Review meeting, or you can note down your thoughts for someone to share for you.

Here are some top tips for sharing your views for your Review

Perhaps you could:

- Write a list of what you like and dislike about your support
- Draw some pictures to show how you are feeling
- Create a collage from photos and magazine pictures
- Make a short vlog/ recording sharing your thoughts
- Speak to an adult you trust who can share your experiences at the meeting
- You can also use the Thoughts Template in this booklet

DO remember that you can give your views in any way that you feel comfortable.

DO remember that these are YOUR views, everyone else will get a chance to share their views as well.

DO remember that you can ask someone to help you write your views.

DO share anything that is going well.

DO share anything that is not going well.

DO share any goals and ambitions you have for the future

DON'T let anyone stop you from sharing your views, you have a right to be involved in your annual review.

What Happens Next?

By the end of the review everyone will have agreed an Action Plan.

- ✓ The Action Plan is to make sure that everyone can see what is going to be done to help you to learn and to achieve your dreams.
- ✓ Everything in the Action Plan will have been talked about in the meeting, including your views and ideas.
- ✓ You can get help from your local Parent Partnership service.
